Now you croakers give the Volunteer Fire Department a little praise.

A rumor was current here last week that the settlers on the San Pedro had been warned to look out for Indians, but it was not believed. Such, however, was the case, as we have reliable information that an Indian courier made his appearance there on the 30th ultimo, bearing a warning from Captain Pierce stating that "all the Chiricahua" had left the reservation, but that if they did not make their appearance on the San Pedro within five days they would not come at all. Whether or not Captain Pierce had any troops at his disposal is not known, but at any rate none made their appearance as a guard against this threatened danger. But pshaw! what is the use of thinking about the military as a protection as it is handled in this Territory at present.—Florence Enterprise.

The Fire Fiend.

This morning at about 4 o'clock, pistol shots, followed by the alarm bell of the fire department, and the shrill screeching of the whistles of various hoisting works, advised the residents of this city that a serious conflagration was in progress, and among those nearest the scene of danger, and among the first to awaken was a reporter of THE DAILY TOMBSTONE. Upon his arrival upon the scene of conflagration he found the Vizina hoisting works, situated upon the corner of Fourth and Toughnut streets enveloped in flames and at the same time, Henry Quigley, a member of Tombstone Engine Company, almost in dis ha bille was at work upon the Vizina hydrant, (and at this time) the heat was almost unbearable, and in order to aid the gallant foreman, Lieut. Jenkins, U. S. A., risked his personal comfort and safety and leaving his own face exposed to the fiery element, held his hat in front of the face of the valient Quigley while he made connection with the hose. About this time both companies of the fire department appeared upon the scene and in a very few seconds no less than five streams were upon the burning building and adjacent buildings, and the firemen worked with a will and in a very few moments the most of the members were drenched to the skin, while several of them had their faces and hands scorched and some of them had their clothes burned. Too much credit cannot be given to Howard Lee and Charles Knapp, for their brave work in rescuing a horse whose mane and tail was already on fire.

At the time the alarm was given quite a stiff breeze was blowing and many of our citizens thought that the lower portion of town, including the elegant court house was sure to go, but thanks to the brave firemen who respond to the call of fire at any time, either night or day, the fire was confined to the Vizina hoisting works, although the adjacent buildings caught on fire once or twice, but were put out at once by the firemen without causing any damage. The Vizina works owing to the combustible material used in its construction was a total loss, and we learned from Casper Taylor, the Superintendent, that the loss will amount to $20,000 and that there was but $3,000 insurance upon the property.

INCIDENTS.

In the rescue of the horse from the stables, Chas. Knapp was overcome smoke and had to be carried from the building.

The morning was bitterly cold and most of the firemen were drenched to the skin.

Harry Wisdom, of the Fountain restaurant, provided hot coffee at the Engine House for the members of the company.

Messrs. Ashmun & Walker, proprietors of the Elite saloon, remembered the boys while at work and after the fire was over.

Mayor Thomas and Councilman Rafferty who were active participants in the work of subduing the flames, invited all members of the department into the Maison Doree after the fire, and regaled them with hot coffee.

Chief Engineer Keefe, while making several mistakes (this being the first big fire since his election) done extremely well.

The loss of the City Wood and Coal Company was but nominal.

Our reporter drew a blank in the Recorder's Court to-day.

A good deal of credit is due to Chas. Wilkes for heroic work done at the fire this morning.

A great many of our citizens were up earlier this morning than they have been for many a day before.

The race between Frank Ryan and Chief Engineer Keefe, is declared off, as both parties are considerably bruised up.

When the fire broke out this morning, Walter Keefe who lives directly opposite the Vizina works, was awakened by the barking of his dog Frank, who made a great uproar, and pawed his master's face.

We understand that the Vizina work will be rebuilt at once. We are glad to learn this as the charred remains of the old works would be a very ungainly sight to our citizens and to strangers who visit our city.

Mr. Billaney, a member of the Tombstone Engine Co., deserves praise for his gallant work this morning at the fire.

Elegant Christmas and New Year's presents can be obtained at H. Schmerding's Pioneer Jewelry Establishment on Allen street.

Live ducks, turkeys and chickens at Dyer & Baldwin's, on Fremont street. 12-11

A dispatch announces the killing of two hostiles near Silver City by Crook's troops yesterday. We only wish that it was twenty instead of two.

Dyer & Baldwin have a fine lot of live Thanksgiving turkeys. 11-19

We are authorized to state that there will be no interruption of business by the City Wood and Coal Co., on account of the fire, and that all orders will be promptly filled.

Notwithstanding the shooting of pistols, the clanging of fire bells and the screeching of whistles this morning Will Baron, the foreman of Rescue Hose Company, slept through it all, and did not know that there was a fire.

Van Arman's View of the Apaches.

Our genial ex-secretary of the territory, H. M. Van Arman, is now in San Francisco, where he was interviewed by an Alta reporter. That Van is sound upon the Indian question may be seen by the following extract from the published interview:

"Well the Indians are as bad as bad can be," said Mr. V. "The management of them seems to be all wrong. I have had some conversation with General Atkins, commissioner of Indian affairs, concerning Arizona Indians, and his idea seems to be correct. He would never make treaties with them; make them amenable to civil law and abrogate the reservation system. There are only a few hostile Indians in Arizona, viz., the Chiricahua band of Apaches, inhabiting a portion of the San Carlos reservation near the New Mexico line. They are idle, vicious and savage. No touch of pity for a captive ever stays their murderous hands from rapine and murder. They know no more of mercy or pity than a wild animal. When their blood-thirsty instincts prompt them to go on a thieving raid, they steal away and the first the settler knows of it is the sound of the war whoop, the gleam of gun barrels and the glare of flames as their houses are set on fire and their families murdered as they try to escape. When the military authorities hear of it the Indians are lost in the fastness of the desolate mountains, and capture is next to impossible. Geronimo, Natchez, Chatto, Lucky Jim and their adherents should have been put to death on their return from the raid last year. If this had been done no more trouble would have occurred. As long as one of these Chiricahua Apaches lives there will be trouble."

PUBLIC NOTICE.

To all persons occupying or claiming lots or parts of lots on the surface ground of the "Way Up" patented mining claim—Take notice—that I have title to and am the owner of an undivided three-fifths (3-5) interest in all the surface ground of the said patented mining claim; and my title is under a sheriff's deed on execution against the property of J. S. Clark, M. Gray and R. Gray on a judgment obtained in 1881, and said sheriff's sale was made while said Clark had a 3-5 interest in said surface ground. See book 8, deeds of mines, Cochise county, pages 415, 416 and 417.

I will make a deed of this 3-5 interest to those having a bona fide possession and improvements on said lots for a reasonable price. And I give you this notice to put you on your guard against the spurious claims of said J. S. Clark, one Satterwhite, and others who I am informed pretend to have title to all of said surface ground. oct23tf JAMES RIELLY.

Caution to the Public.

The above notice is a fraud and a blackmailing scheme, about the same as Rilly is now robbing the Baldrige estate. J. S. CLARK. oct27-tf
